Elite PC

If your computers aren't working efficiently, neither are your employees.

Like a smartphone plan, Elite PC provides new business-class desktops and laptops every three years, keeping your technology up to date.

In contrast to consumer-class hardware from box stores, Elite business-class computers are built for all-day use. They have higher quality components, like metal hinges, built to withstand occasional drops and knocks, designed for business use and tested rigorously to support your mission-critical reliability and performance needs.

Elite PC includes protection against hackers and malware, unlimited data backup with crypto virus defense, proactive management of security updates, business-class warranty, and protection for accidental damage.

Achieve a worry-free technology experience when you bundle Elite PC with Elite Concierge.
